

1. KLove has been a great radio offering in the Austin area. It is a good mix of Christian music and a preferred alternative to other radio stations. I can't imagine not having KLOVE as a station choice anymore. Austin needs a Christian radio station that offers contemporary music yet still promotes the message of Christ's blessings.